Boy Pianist Will Star

Jimmy Howard Will Play in Arts Festival

The Civic Symphony will present the 12th annual Festival of the Arts May 6, 7, and 8 in Redondo Auditorium. There will be three days of programs crammed with stars.

The symphony orchestra is full of stars from the studios and the Philharmonic as well as many finest local talents. The orchestra will play Saturday, May 7, when they will be heard in Beethoven's First Symphony and Fingals' Cave from Mendelssohn's Hebrides Suite. They are led by Elyse Aehle, who has received many honors, last year including a citation from county Supervisors and an invitation to go to Europe as guest conductor of some of the large symphony orchestras.

Soloist will be 8-year-old Jimmy Howard of Torrance.

With the symphony he will play Haydn's Piano Concerto in C Major which was recently discovered in the State Library in Berlin. It is probable this will be a first performance of this work in the West.

His teacher is Josephine Helms Geritz, lecturer for the Los Angeles Philharmonic.

He gave his first piano recital when he was 5. One day he played for his schoolmates in kindergarten all the pieces he knew. When Mrs. Geritz asked if the children didn't get tired and squirm, he said, "Oh yes, but I didn't pay any attention. I just went on playing." He is in the third grade at Lincoln School and is considered an exceptional student.

The second part of the May 7 program will feature Wilson Morelli and his ballet company of professional dancers from Hollywood.

On Friday evening at 7 p.m. the three-day art exhibit will open with a reception and at 8 o'clock the curtain will rise on the Hollywood Shakespeare Festival. David Bond is director.

It is the first professional Shakespeare festival ever given in this community. They will appear in excerpts from five plays performed in early Elizabeth style.

Reserved seats for the Shakespeare Festival and the symphony-ballet program may be obtained by sending an order and check to Civic Symphony Office, 1617 Via Montemar, Palos Verdes Estates.

Reserved seats are $1 each.

Officers to Move

George A. Beavers Jr., Commission chairman of the Housing Authority of the City of Los Angeles, today announced removal of the authority's central administrative offices to 515 Columbia Ave., effective Monday, May 2.

The new telephone number will be HUBBARD 3-6440. New mailing address: P.O. Box 17157, Foy Station, Los Angeles 17.

Use classified, Call DA 5-1515.

SOLOIST—Jimmy Howard, 8, Torrance prodigy, has been selected to play western premiere of Haydn work with Civic Symphony on Festival of Arts program next week.

Torrance Phone Employee Given New Assignment

Mrs. Beverly J. Desmond of 2623 W. 178th St. has been appointed special assistant for Pacific Telephone in Compton, the company announced this week.

In her new assignment, Mrs. Desmond supervises a group of young women responsible for posting and checking of construction-engineering records, as well as accounting for all outside telephone equipment in the Los Angeles and Ventura counties.

Mrs. Desmond started with Pacific Telephone in 1947 as an operator working part time. Since then she has held various assignments in the plant department, which serve as background knowledge for her recent promotion.

Her husband Tom also is employed by Pacific Telephone as an installer in Gardena. They have two sons, Tommy, 6, who attends Arlington elementary school, and Mark, 2½.

City Fire Fighters Honored For Largest Y Contribution

The Torrance Fire Fighters were honored at their regular monthly meeting by the presentation of "Service to Youth" plaque from the Torrance YMCA.

In making the presentation to the group, Joe Wilcox, executive secretary of the youth agency, said the firemen gave hundreds of hours off-duty time to their march in behalf of the YMCA.

The firemen gave more than $4100 to the Y, and this large gift will make summer camp possible for 11000 local boys and girls.

Union President Richard DeArmitt accepted the token of appreciation in behalf of the 54 firemen who took an active part in the effort.

An added gift came as a surprise to the two men who served as chairmen of the drive.

Receiving personal "Service to Youth" plaques were DeArmitt and Sam Martin.

Each man lead a team of firemen during their time away from active duty. The fire fighters worked eight nights and were able to call upon more than 15,000 homes in Torrance.

Return envelopes left at many homes are still being received at the Y. Stanley Yanase, vice chairman of the YMCA board, said the Fire fighters' gift was the largest received during the 1960 campaign, and it was this great sum that put the Y over its 1960 goal of $32,000.

Bird Exhibit to open

A unique exhibition of bird portraits by the great naturalist-artists of the 19th century will open at the Los Angeles County Museum May 6, coinciding with the 31st annual meeting of the Cooper Ornithological Society. Assembled by the Los Angeles County Museum, the exhibition comprises more than 50 original paintings and drawings used for illustrations in ornithological books. It will continue through May 29.
